Manulabai Kashiram Shewale and Ors..Respondents

Shri Dilip Bodke for Appellants

CORAM:S.R.SATHE,J.

DATED:21st Dec. 2006

P.C.:-

1. Heard the learned Advocate for the Appellants.

2. From the perusal of the judgments of both the lower courts it is very clear that the suit simplicitor for permanent injunction in respect of two lands was filed by the plaintiffs. The trial Court after considering the evidence on record held that plaintiffs have failed to prove their possession of the suit property. The said finding is confirmed by the first Appellate Court. There is nothing on record to indicate that Courts below have not taken into consideration particular evidence or that appreciation of evidence is perverse. No error of law is pointed out by the Appellants.No substantial question of law is involved in the present appeal.

3. The appeal is dismissed in limine.
